MAYOR'S MESSAGE

The Council is committed to upgrading and revitalising Ku-ring-gai's major centres such as Turramurra and Lindfield and much of this year will be devoted to progressing these projects.

However we are also committed to revitalising smaller centres. One of these is East Lindfield, with the facelift of the local shopping area in Wellington Road completed this month.

After talking to residents and business owners last year to get an idea of what improvements they felt were needed, the centre now has new footpaths and a sandstone paved entrance to improve connections between parking areas, the shops and surrounding streets. New shade trees and shrubs have been planted, and new seating and bins installed.

We look forward to bringing further improvements to other local shopping centres in the coming months.

One of Shakespeare's most delightful plays Twelfth Night will be performed at the Ku-ring-gai Wildflower Garden on Sunday 4 March starting at 5pm. This special one-off twilight performance will be a chance to enjoy live theatre in a unique outdoor setting. Bring a picnic or simply buy food and drinks at the venue; please note that BYO alcohol is not permitted. Tickets and more information are at kmc.nsw.gov.au/twelfthnight

Once again the Council's youth services team are offering young residents aged 12 to 24 the chance to learn the basics of audio and music production. During this four week course you'll use the latest hardware and software in a dedicated studio facility. The course is suitable for all levels and starts on Friday 23 February. The cost per person is $40 and bookings can be made by calling 9424 0981 or email youth@kmc.nsw.gov.au For more info visit kmc.nsw.gov.au/youthevents

Finally I invite older residents aged 65 plus, or groups dedicated to helping older members of our community to consider nominating themselves for a Mayoral Seniors Award. The awards are a way of recognising how important older people are in Ku-ring-gai. Nominations close on Wednesday 28 February and nominations can be made via kmc.nsw.gov.au/seniorsfestival
